BRAND MESSAGE

Guided by our vision, in union with Mary, our Model and St. Paul, our patron, we endeavor to become a preferred educational community, proclaim Jesus Christ, the good news, and uplift the quality of life, in a culture of excellence, compassionate caring and collaboration through:

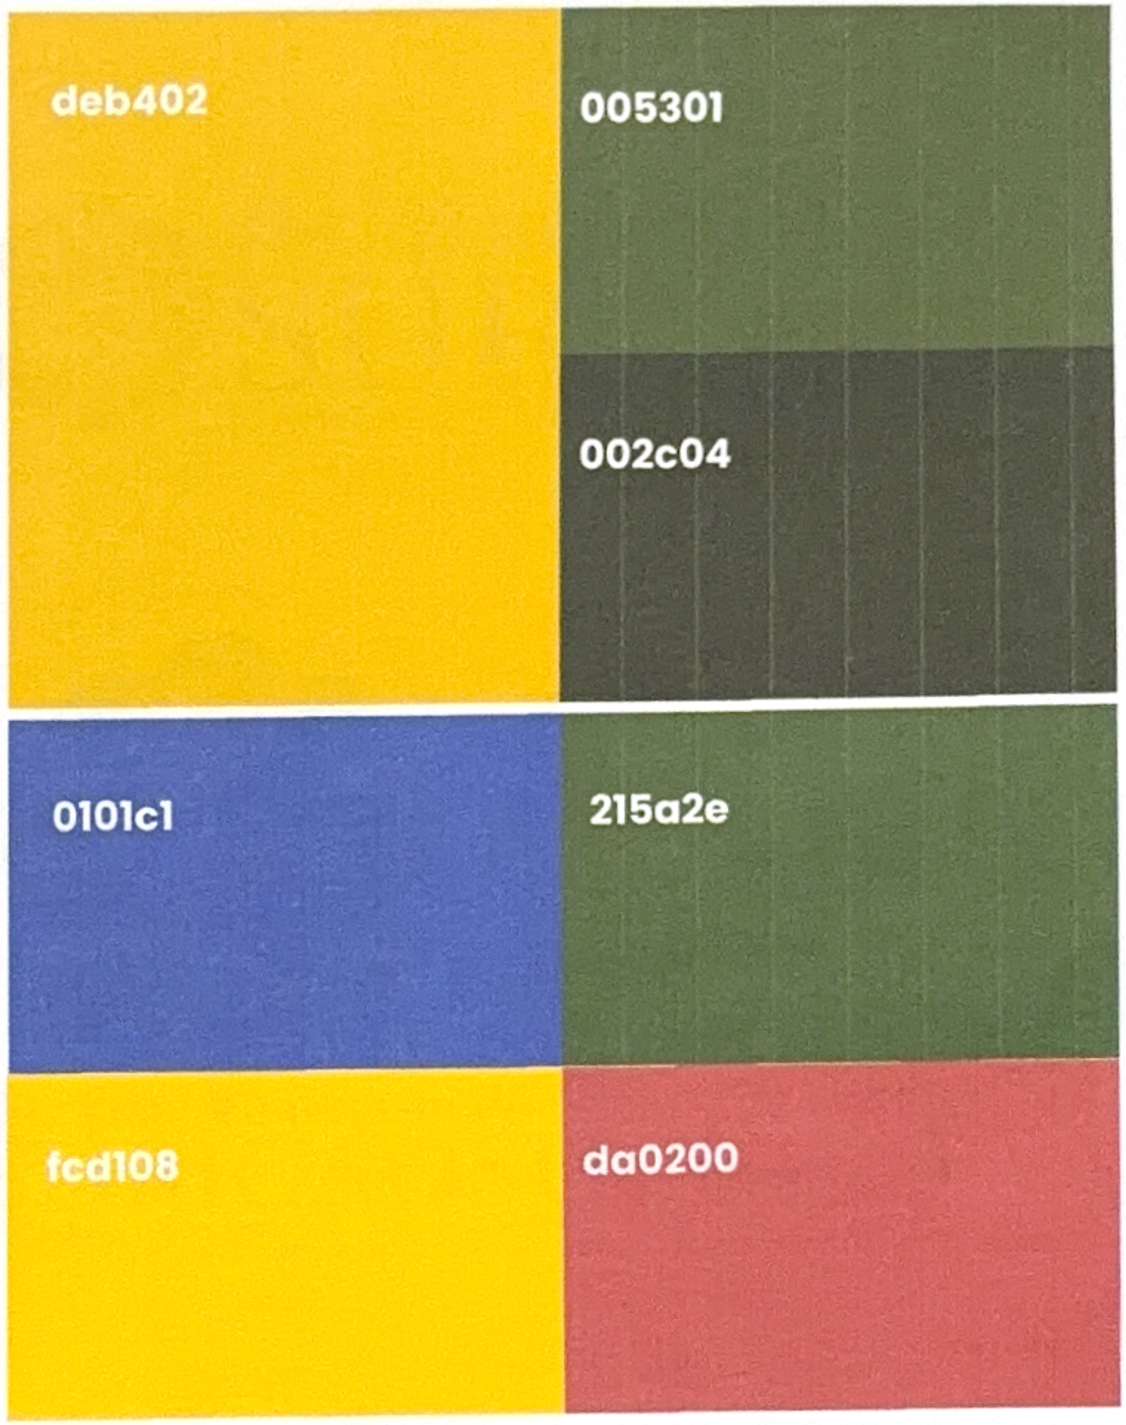

• Integral Catholic formation, academic competence, research and community service;
• Innovative and productive management systems and processes permeated with Gospel values;
• Optimum access to Paulinian education and services with preferential option for the under- privileged

SPU Surigao is a Paulinian community of learners and believers impelled by the charism and spirituality of the Sisters of St. Paul of Chartres form Christ-centered, integrated, competent and responsible persons in the service of the Church and society.

St. Paul University Surigao provides quality, Catholic Paulinian education that is customer-focused in a culture of compassionate caring through • involvement at all levels • upgrading of human resources and facilities • commitment to continual improvement

COLOR PALETTE

The color palette sets a visual tone for the school's brand. Colors can also create a strong brand recall when it is associated with your brand.

COLOR PALETTE GUIDELINES

- Primary colors are used for logo, school documents such as letterheads, certificates, diploma and school signage and banners.
- Secondary colors may be used to complement the primary palette but never to substitute. It may be used in backgrounds, highlighters, supporting text or callouts.

LOGO

A logo is the visual representation of your school. It is an icon that symbolizes the school's history, culture, and values. It can be used on all print media, all advertising platforms, websites, and other external communications.
